

LEGAL STAFF PROFESSIONALS OF GREENVILLE

Legal Staff Professionals of Greenville is chartered by and affiliated with NALS ... the association for legal professionals. The association is based on the principles of service to all legal support professionals, attorneys, courts, law societies, and the general public. Members must adhere to the NALS Code of Ethics and must be familiar with the Code of Professional Responsibility of the American Bar Association.

CODE OF ETHICS

Members of NALS are bound by the objectives of this Association and the standards of conduct required of the legal profession.

Every Member Shall:

- Encourage respect for the law and the administration of justice.
- Observe rules governing privileged communications and confidential information.
- Promote and exemplify high standards of loyalty, cooperation and courtesy.
- Perform all duties of the profession with integrity and competence.
- Pursue a high order of professional attainment.

OUR MISSION AND GOAL

Legal Staff Professionals of Greenville (LSPG) is dedicated to enhancing the competencies and contributions of members in the legal service profession. It accomplishes its mission and supports the public interest through:

- Continuing legal education and resource material;
- Networking opportunities at the local, state and national levels;
- Commitment to a Code of Ethics and professional standards;
- Professional certification programs and designations.

BENEFITS

Certification Programs

ALP[®] - Accredited Legal Professional: basic certification for legal professionals

Demonstrate your preparedness for the demanding field of law. This designation is awarded after passing a three-part examination. Attaining this goal demonstrates your commitment and aptitude for succeeding in the ever-changing legal environment.

PLS/CLP[®] - Certified Legal Professional: advanced certification for legal professionals

How do your skills compare with the hallmark of a professional? PLS[®]/CLP[®] is the designation for lawyers' assistants who want to be identified as exceptional. This certification is received after passing a four-part examination, which demonstrates, not only dedication to professionalism, but also acceptance of the challenge to be exceptional. Personal motivation is necessary to attain such a goal.

PP[®] - Professional Paralegal: superior certification for legal professionals

Dare to excel! Be the superior legal assistant/paralegal you want to be! Take the certified professional paralegal exam. Certification is received by passing a four-part examination, which includes substantive law. Set yourself apart from your peers!

SCCP - South Carolina Certified Paralegal Individuals with a Professional Paralegal (PP) certification who are qualified by education and training, and have demonstrated knowledge, skill, and proficiency to perform substantive legal work under the direction and supervision of a South Carolina licensed attorney.

Celebrating Over 50 Years

LSPG serves as a local chapter of Legal Staff Professionals of South Carolina and NALS... the association for legal professionals. Since 1958, LSPG has provided legal training and assistance to the legal professionals of Greenville and its surrounding areas.

LSPG General Membership meetings are held on the third Wednesday of each month at 12:30 p.m. at the Poinsett Club. Speakers from the legal profession participate in the meetings by providing educational presentations to LSPG members and guests. LSPG annually sponsors a Probate Court Seminar in the fall, with the assistance of the Greenville County Probate Court staff, and members volunteer their time to the Greenville County Bar Association assisting with special events. LSPG serves the community through annual contributions to non-profit organizations during the year. LSPG provides a great opportunity to network with legal staff and law firms from throughout the Greenville area.

Seminars and Training opportunities are also available through the Legal Staff Professionals of South Carolina (LSPSC). Meetings are held three times a year providing opportunities to participate in educational seminars and meet other legal professionals from throughout the state.
